A Message to Adults

"In Utah, thousands of hardworking individuals hold several jobs to make ends meet, but still do not have affordable insurance. PCN helps uninsured Utah adults get access to primary, preventive care."

What Is PCN?

PCN is a health plan offered by the Utah Department of Health. It covers the services administered by a primary care provider.

What does PCN cover?

- Visits to a primary care provider
- Four prescriptions per month
- Dental exams, cleanings, fillings, routine x-rays, tooth extractions
- Immunizations
- Routine lab services and x-rays
- Limited coverage of emergency room visits
- Emergency medical transportation
- Birth control

What is not covered?

- Hospital stays, MRIs, CT scans, etc.
- Visits to a specialist, such as an orthopedist, cardiologist, ear, nose and throat doctor, etc.

For some services not covered by PCN, a PCN Specialty Care Coordinator may be able to help you find a provider who charges a minimum co-pay.

How Do I Qualify?

Depending on your family size and income, you may qualify. See chart below.

MAXIMUM INCOME GUIDELINES

FAMILY SIZE	PER MONTH	PER YEAR
1	$924	$11,088
2	$1,246	$14,952
3	$1,567	$18,804
4	$1,889	$22,668
5	$2,210	$26,520
6	$2,531	$30,372

Effective February 2015

In addition, you must also:

- Be age 19 through 64
- Be a U.S. citizen or legal resident
- Not be covered by other health insurance
- Not be qualified for Medicaid
- Not have access to student health insurance, Medicare or Veterans benefits

How much will PCN cost?

You will pay low co-pays for services like a visit to a primary care provider.

How Do I Apply?

Applications are only accepted during open enrollment periods. For more information or to find out when enrollment is open, visit the PCN website or call the PCN Hotline.

Why is enrollment sometimes open to "parents only"?

Because of some federal funding restrictions for PCN, enrollment is sometimes limited just to parents. To qualify as a parent, you must have a child under age 19 living at home with you.
