Lacey Anderson M.Ed.

Owner / Director

Lacey Anderson is the founder and director of Parenting Possibilities and Autism Solutions. She received a Master of Early Childhood Education and a Master of Special Education from Mercy College in New York City.

Lacey has over 8 years of experience working with children with special needs. While completing her undergraduate work in college, Lacey worked as a behavioral therapist for children with Autism. After graduating she went on to complete her master's degree and spent four years working as a special education teacher. During this time, she worked and continues to work as a behavioral consultant and therapist for children with special needs.
