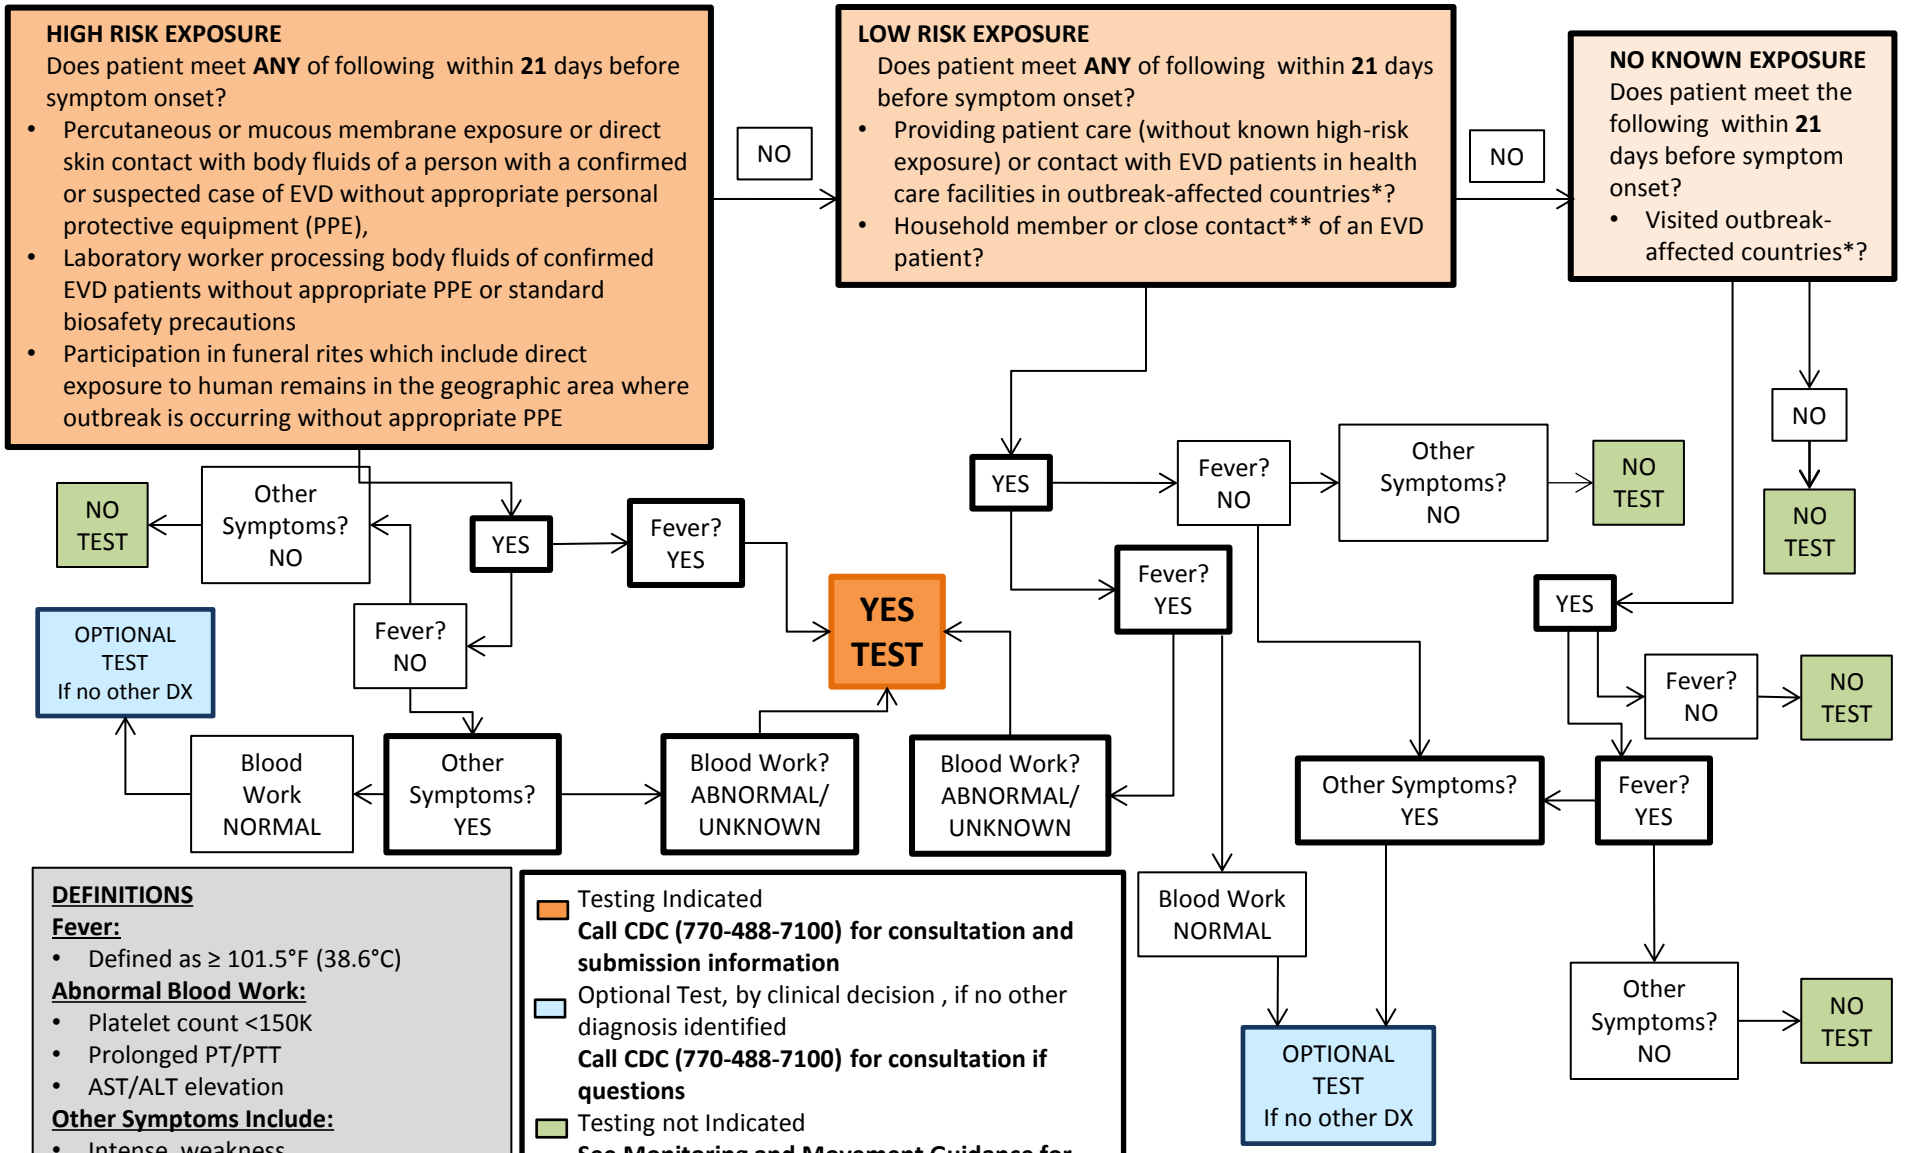
DECISION GUIDE FOR CDC CONSULTATION AND EBOLA VIRUS DISEASE (EVD) TESTING



DEFINITIONS

Fever:
- Defined as ≥ 101.5°F (38.6°C)

Abnormal Blood Work:
- Platelet count <150K
- Prolonged PT/PTT
- AST/ALT elevation

Other Symptoms Include:
- Intense weakness
- Muscle pain
- Headache and sore throat
- Vomiting
- Diarrhea
- Impaired kidney and liver function
- Internal or external bleeding

- Testing Indicated
  Call CDC (770-488-7100) for consultation and submission information
- Optional Test, by clinical decision , if no other diagnosis identified
  Call CDC (770-488-7100) for consultation if questions
- Testing not Indicated
  See Monitoring and Movement Guidance for additional restrictions

* Outbreak updates and affected countries found at:
http://www.cdc.gov/vhf/ebola/outbreaks/guinea/index.html
 See link below for definition:
http://www.cdc.gov/vhf/ebola/hcp/case-definition.html

SPECIMENS RECEIVED AT CDC WITHOUT PRIOR CONSULTATION WILL NOT BE TESTED. TESTING MAY BE DELAYED IF TRACKING INFORMATION IS NOT PROVIDED.