

Scott Williams, HCA MountainStar Healthcare

Dr. Scott Williams has been the Chief Medical Officer for MountainStar, a division of the Hospital Corporation of America (HCA), since 2006.

After completing his pediatric residency at the University of Utah and Primary Children's, he practiced for over a decade among indigent populations including native Americans, migrant workers, and inner city families living in poverty.

Dr. Williams then spent twelve years overseeing a broad spectrum public health programs at the Utah Department of Health including two years as Executive Director. He was responsible for coordinating all of the state's public health services for the 2002 Winter Olympics.

He also spent a year as the medical director of HealthInsight, the Medicare Quality Improvement Organization (QIO) for Utah.