

Stacy Eddings, Private Research Firm, Bach Harrison

Stacy Eddings received a Ph.D. in Social Psychology in 2002 from the University of Utah. She has been an evaluation project director for Bach Harrison, L.L.C. since 1999.

Dr. Eddings has extensive experience with state-level, community-level, and program-level evaluation. Evaluation experience includes database design, statistical analyses, evaluation design, survey development, project coordination and oversight, and data presentation.

Dr. Eddings is a member of the Utah Prevention Advisory Council (UPAC), Utah Evidence Based Workgroup, and the American Evaluation Association.